Romans 1:16-32 Reflection Questions:

1) Paul says that man's wickedness suppresses the truth (Romans 1:18). What truth are people suppressing (Romans 1:19-20)?

2) The decision to suppress the truth has had many effects upon mankind. What results does Paul name in (Romans 1:24-32)?

3) In light of Romans 1:18-32, what needs to change in a person before he or she can understand the gospel and forsake sin?

4) Why does God give people over to depraved minds and actions? Why is this just?

5) To what extent does Romans 1:18-32 describe the world around you and your own life before you committed yourself to Christ?