Easy warm-up questions (choose one)

1. These days, what gets you up and moving in the morning?
2. As we move past the COVID-19 restrictions, what is one of the first things you are going to do?

What motivates Paul (to pray) 3:14,15

1. What is it that motivates Paul to pray?
2. Thinking back through chapters 1 to 3 (it's okay to take time to do this - even reading these chapters together), as Paul describes God's grace to you, what stands out to you as particularly meaningful? Why?
3. These days, how does what God has done for you inform and influence your prayer for yourself? For others?

The specifics of Paul's prayer 3:16-19

1. We often settle for far less than what God graciously desires to pour into our lives.
TRUE FALSE DECLINE TO TAKE A POSITION
2. What does Paul mean by "strength"?
3. What does Paul mean by "comprehension"?
4. What does Paul mean by "fullness"?
5. How does God apply each of these to our lives?
6. These days, which of these is most meaningful to you?
7. Putting question #6 slightly differently: These days, what is it like for you to experience the "strength," "comprehension," and "fullness" of God in your life?

Paul's application 3:20,21

1. Ultimately, what is the purpose of life?
2. All of what God has created will bring glory to Him.
TRUE FALSE DECLINE TO TAKE A POSITION
3. Why is it important to understand that we have a choice of living for God's glory, or not?

Processing all that...

1. This really is you and God question: These days, who's glory are you really living for? Considering your answer to this question, what will you do about it?
2. These days, who do you know who needs to know about what God offers them through Jesus Christ? Considering your answer to this question, what will you do about it?
